

Captain Dan Reasoner

Captain Dan has been involved with sailing for over 40 years and has formally instructed sailors young and old over the last 10 years. Dan holds a US Coast Guard OUPV “6-Pack” License and is a Certified ASA Instructor, as well as a US SAILING Instructor.

Dan started sailing out of the Rochester Canoe Club (RCC) for “One-Design Sailboat Racing”, where he became a competent skipper on Irondequoit Bay and the New York Finger Lakes. Dan became an Officer in the RCC, as well as Commodore. In addition, Dan sailed out of the Rochester Yacht Club on the waters of Lake Ontario.

Dan has spent a lot of time racing all types of sailing vessels from one person dinghies up to 38’ yachts. As skipper and crew Dan has won countless awards.

After first working as a chemist at Eastman Kodak, Dan became a sales representative for scientific instrumentation, software and Knowledge Management companies.

In 1989 Dan, his wife Marlene and four children moved to Bucks County PA and joined the Nockamixon Sail Club (NSC) where Dan is often sailing with at least one family member on the boat. Dan became an Officer and Commodore of the NSC as well.

Dan continues to race sailboats, as well as charter cruising boats on all bodies of water mostly up-and-down the east coast.
